Report By Gloria Burton of DFRW Convention Nov. 20, 2021
Report of DFRW Convention November 20, 2021
The 69th Annual DFRW Convention was held on November 20, 2021, at the Modern Maturity Building in Dover, DE. The Kent County Republican Women hosted. The meeting was presided over by Cathy Watts the outgoing DFRW President.

Highlights of the Convention:

- The SRWC won an award for the largest increase percentage wise in membership in the state's clubs.
- Hope Whaley was recognized for the highest number of volunteer hours for the SRWC.
- There was an election for the office of President for DFRW as Patricia (Trisha) Rodriguez was opposed by Erin Wiener. Erin Wiener was elected to be the DFRW President.
- Many candidates stopped by our convention to congratulate us as well as put in a word for their campaigns for around the state.
- Reports were heard from the 4 states clubs informing us all of their activities for the year, recognizing their achievements.
- The Keynote Speaker was Vanessa LaFranco, the current NFRW Secretary.
- The Convention held annually, is a great way to meet and or reacquaint yourselves with like minded women representing the Republican Party across the state. The next convention will be hosted by the Sussex republican clubs. The date and location will be announced later this year as the plans are developed.
